

Greater Gresham Area Prevention Partnership Youth Leadership Team

The GGAPP is looking for high school students (age 14-18) to join our Youth Leadership Team who:

- ?enjoy a challenge and want to learn new skills
- ?can commit to dedicating about 5-10 hours per month to the Youth Leadership Team
- ?want to positively impact their friends and peers
- ?desire to make their communities safer and healthier
- ?are looking for hands-on leadership experience that will benefit them in school, work and life

As a team we plan to:

- ?Participate in fun projects in the community that get teens thinking about substance use and abuse and how to support healthy communities in East Multnomah County
- ?Brainstorm and discuss ways to empower peers to make healthy decisions in all areas of life
- ?Help design and carry out GGAPP's Youth Conference in the spring
- ?Get to know students from other area high schools and learn how to collaborate on projects and activities

Benefits of participating in GGAPP's Youth Leadership Team include:

- ?Gain valuable experience for job and college applications
- ?Receive letters of recommendation from professionals at GGAPP
- ?Make new friends
- ?Spend free time on activities that are meaningful and enjoyable
- ?Log community service hours for graduation and college applications
- ?Have the opportunity to be one of the four students to travel to Washington D.C. for a youth leadership conference in February
